IDEAL TRAINER MANUAL

The IDEAL Trainer Manual gives you a sense on why building the digital skills of teachers, trainers & adult learners is a vital step in actually benefiting from technology in education. It is designed to help you understand the different ways in which digitalization can be implemented and assist you to make decisions about how technology can fit in with your particular educational resources and needs. It supports you on how & where digital tools and ICT can be implemented and applied your teaching and training activities. In summary, it is set up as a hands-on and practical applicable guide describing step-by-step HOW digital tools and ICT can be implemented in your teaching practices and strategies. This process takes into account all parties involved including the learner and the organisation's management. The manual will be available on the IDEAL Learning Platform in October 2019.

TOOLKIT

The IDEAL Toolkit brings together a comprehensive set of digital technology-based tools which teachers and trainers can use to learn about and to select from over 100 digital vocational and education tools. This directory reviews 100 digital tools and includes a detailed review of nearly thirty digital tools in four areas: preparation, interaction, presentation and assessment.

You can use these tools prepare your teaching and training lessons, plans and resources. To get a better understanding of the range of tools that are available, check out the reviews of the tools featured in this directory. You can find them on our learning platform, where you can also download the e-book version of the toolkit.

PILOTING

Over the last months we have tested the IDEAL Toolkit and Learning platform with a wide range of adult educators across Spain, Italy, Greece, the Netherlands and the UK. The reactions were positive and our testers indicated that the selected tools were useful, and the testimonials from other adult educators helpful to know about the use of a particular tool.
